Miss 1922

TRACING back to the days of the Civil War girl, she wore an Easter bonnet with wide crown swathed in ostrich feathers. A few paces peeped through on a trim of black tulle above and white silk underneath.

SADLY, to say the least, was the feathered bonnet worn by fair Easter parades a half century ago. White, ostrich plumes cascaded down over a brim just wide enough to cast a shadow over the brow.

SHE would come to town in her Quaker gown, and bonnet—would the Miss of 1882. Soft straw covered with gray silk and trimmed with sky pink roses. This gave a youthful look and appealed to the youth of that day.

INTRODUCING the last word in Chinese and dash. It prevailed just 20 years ago on Easter morn. 'Twas a sailor bonnet with port crown and sunny brim. Ostrich feathers drooped far down over the side.

LIKE the headgear of proud empresses was the hat which the early twentieth century girls wore on Easter morn. There was a wide brim of flower embroidered silk and a drooping ostrich feather at the side.

ONLY ten years ago, yet Miss 1912 peeps at us from a bonnet that would appear very queer in this day. Truly a picture hat, it was exceptionally large with parasol brim of flowered silk and graceful ostrich feathers covering the brim.

HERE we are, up to date! Ostrich feathers, after a run of 50 years, have passed out. And mildness of the present day steps forth in a unique bonnet of woven straw with clusters of color silk and a dash of ribbon.

OHIO RIVERS AND STREAMS ON RAMPAGE; MANY FAMILIES FLEE HOMES; HEAVY DAMAGE*FEAR SERIOUS CLASH OF RIVAL PARTIES IN IRELAND SUNDAY

DUBLIN, April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Eamon DeValera today issued the following Easter message addressed to the young men and women of Ireland:

"Beyond all telling is the destiny God had in His mind for Ireland, the fair, the peerless one. You are artists of that destiny. Yours is the faith that moves mountains, the faith that comforts cowardly reason and its thousands of misgivings. Yours is the faith and love that begot the enterprise of Easter, 1916."

"Young men and young women, of Ireland, the goal is at last in sight. Steady! altogether forward. Ireland is yours for the taking."

"EAMON DEVALERA, 'Easter, 1922.'"

Belief was expressed in some quarters in Dublin that the character of the last sentences in Mr. DeValera's message would strengthen current rumors of a Republican coup during this Easter.

DEVELOPMENTS in Ireland over Sunday are anxiously awaited here in view of the Republic's seizure of the four courts in Dublin and Arthur Griffith's declaration to hold his protest meeting in Sligo tomorrow over the death of the Irish Republican commander.

Situation Described Serious. The situation is described as very serious by the morning newspapers. Disappointment is expressed in the peace conference between representatives of the free states.

SLAYER OF HUSBAND ON A HUNGER STRIKE

TOLEDO, O., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Miss Carlotta Simon, who shot and killed her former husband, John H. Tepper, Toledo restaurant proprietor, in his place of business Sunday night, was removed from the county jail to a sanitarium here last night, upon orders from County Prosecutor Roy Stuart, following the submission of a report by three doctors, who gave the woman a cursory examination yesterday at the prosecutor's request.

Miss Simon, who has not eaten since her arrest immediately following the murder, is being fed through tubes at the sanitarium in an attempt to break the hunger strike she has imposed upon herself. If the slayer's condition warrants it, a thorough examination of her mental condition probably will be made today, it was announced at the sanitarium.

A further continuance of the case was granted in police court yesterday and Wednesday of next week set as the date for arraignment.

Sleep On Tracks; Three Men Killed

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Three men, Elmer Thrill, John Slaughter and Ed Riggs, all of Columbus, Ohio, were killed late last night while sleeping on the tracks of the Texas and Pacific railway near Triumbe, Texas, when a freight train passed over their bodies. The detectives had been assigned to cases involving the theft of automobiles. The man, when the detectives entered, jumped to his feet and catching the officers unprepared, began shooting. Both detectives fell. The man, gun in hand, fled and was captured after a thrilling pursuit through the downtown streets. He is believed to be "Red" Holt, a police character.

ADVANCE MADE ON RUSSIAN SITUATION

GENOA, April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—A distinct advance toward settlement of the Russian question was registered by the economic conference today, conference leaders declared.

Prime Minister Lloyd George, of Great Britain, expressed this view in one of his characteristic figurative utterances, saying: "We are building a bridge across the stream," he said. "We have driven some of the piles, we are now in the deepest part of the current and are driving them into the mud at the bottom. Although the bridge is not yet above water, the piles are firmly fixed, and we are still hammering at them."

Coal Mine Strikers Make Gains

PITTSBURGH, PA., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Latest additions to union ranks, as reported to headquarters of the United Mine Workers here, according to Vice President P. T. Fagen, of District 5, were in the Indian Creek region of Fayette county, where six independent mines employing about 1,200 men were closed yesterday.

From Westmoreland county, he said, reports indicated that 15 mines had been closed in the past two days, bringing the total of closed mines to 35 and striking miners to 15,000.

Reports from Uniontown late last night showed that 131 striking miners of the Nemaquin plant of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Company in Green county had returned to work yesterday.

HAZLETON, PA., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—The third week of the anthracite coal mine suspension started today with unbroken ranks among the men and no efforts on the part of any companies to resume, according to statements given out at headquarters of the union.

Stick To Job Until Decision Is Given

CINCINNATI, O., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Freight handlers, platform and yard clerks of the Big Four Railroad in the Cincinnati terminal at a meeting last night decided to continue on the job when their work goes to a private contractor, and to await the decision of the railroad labor board as to whether railroad work can be farmed out. The sentiment of the men, it was said at the start of the meeting, was in favor of taking a strike vote.

Mississippi Flood Breaks Thru Levees

COLUMBUS, O., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Practically all rivers and streams in central and southern Ohio were on a rampage today, following an average rainfall of 2.75 inches over the southern half of the state yesterday and last night.

Clear and cooler weather today, however, was expected to check the rapidly rising streams and prevent serious flood conditions, such as prevailed in 1913.

Hocking Valley Has Serious Flood
The government weather bureau here announced this morning that most serious flood conditions prevailed in the Hocking River valley between Lancaster and Athens. Thousands of acres of plowed farm land was reported inundated with a large loss to farmers. Railroad traffic in this territory was almost completely suspended and several families had been forced to leave their homes in the lowlands.

Muskingum Flood Below Coshocton
The weather bureau this morning issued a flood warning to cities and villages along the Muskingum river south of Coshocton. This river was reported rising rapidly. Serious conditions were not expected by the weather bureau, but the residents of the valley were warned to be prepared.

Scioto River On Rampage
The Scioto river was at flood stage from Circleville south, and was reported one foot above flood stage at Chillicothe. The Olentangy river was reported at flood stage and overflowing its banks between Delaware and Columbus.

LEVEE BREAKS, 5,000 ACRES INUNDATED
CAIRO, ILL., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—The levee at Grand Tower broke this morning and the swollen Mississippi spread over 5,000 acres of cultivated land. The water is 11 feet deep in some places. All residents are believed to have moved to high ground.

Police With Row-Boats Rescue Families

LANCASTER, O., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Police with row boats rescued a number of families from the flooded west side district after midnight this morning, when many houses in that section stood in 18 inches of water.

Trains over the Hocking Valley and the Pennsylvania were tied up this morning because of washouts. The Hocking Valley tracks at Rockbridge were reported under three feet of water. A Pennsylvania freight train ran into a washout near Junction City this morning and eight loaded cars were thrown into the ditch.

All rivers and creeks in this territory were falling rapidly this morning.

East Liverpool District Hard Hit

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Operations in pottery plants are crippled, street car service, both local and interurban, is at a standstill, telephone communication is disabled and a flood in the Ohio river is feared as a result of last night's storm in the Ohio valley.

The Ohio river this morning registered a stage of 19.1 feet at Don No. 8, near here. The rate of the rise was seven tenths of a foot an hour and rivermen said they feared a flood stage.

All electric current was shut off shortly after midnight due to the crippling of operations at the Bosch Bottom W. Va. plant of the Truckee Power Company, which furnishes the East Liverpool district.

LICKING RIVER FLOODS ZANESVILLE

ZANESVILLE, O., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—At 10:00 o'clock this morning the Licking river overflowed West Main and State streets and many electric cars from Columbus can not enter the city. Passengers are being transferred.

Pittsburgers Driven Upstairs By Rain

PITTSBURGH, PA., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Many families in the west end were driven from the first floors of their homes and damage estimated at thousands of dollars resulted from the torrents of rain that fell last night here. At the same time river men announced that they were expecting a flood stage to reach the city today. Forecasts of the probable crest were unavailable late last night.

From all of the low-lying parts of the city came reports of flooded cellars, and basements of establishments. Several landslides and cases of blocked car tracks gave the traction company much difficulty in maintaining service, while sections of the road bed were washed out to a more or less great extent in several sections of the city.

McCormack Undergoes Another Operation

NEW YORK, April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—John McCormack, the tenor, who has been seriously ill of a throat affection, underwent another operation today because of the "increased difficulty in breathing," said a bulletin issued by his physicians. The upper part of the pharynx was opened.

The bulletin issued by Drs. Alfred C. Dupont, Harrison Smith and Cornelius G. Conkley, said:

"Mr. McCormack passed a very restless night. Dr. Munroe was at his bedside all night. Dr. Smith was called in at 4 a. m. and remained in constant attendance until this hour, 11 p. m."

"At 7:30 a. m. there was increased difficulty in breathing. At 8 a. m. he was operated on by Dr. Smith, assisted by Dr. Munroe. Opened the upper part of the pharynx."

"At 1 p. m. anti-toxin, 10,000 units, administered by Dupont."

Unofficial reports from the sick room said the singer was resting easier after the operation.

Truck Farms Flooded
CINCINNATI, O., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—The Ohio river here early today registered 32.4 feet as a result of the heavy rains of yesterday and last night, but the government weather bureau said it would not reach the flood stage of 52 feet. The Big and Little Miami rivers, the Whitewater and the Licking poured torrents into the Ohio here, causing a rise of more than ten feet between 7 o'clock yesterday morning and the same hour today. Low lands and truck farms along these Ohio tributaries were overflowed and suffered heavy damage. The streams were within their banks today.

In this city cellars were flooded, streets littered with debris, storm sewers were overflowed and night time did some damage.

Rain Does Much Damage
AKRON, O., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Both the Tuscarawas and Cuyahoga rivers here are considerably higher today, but a flood stage has not been reached. The rains of the past few days have done much damage. The sewers were unable to carry off the water.

Dams Check Flood At Dayton
DAYTON, O., April 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Operation of the Miami conservancy dams has kept the stage in the Miami river at Dayton down to approximately nine feet. Water behind the dams, however, is expected to reach a round point before the crest is reached.

There is water in many Dayton cellars, but it is attributed to the heavy rain, rather than overflow of backwater from the river. Water in the Miami river is higher south of Dayton than here. A small section of Cincinnati and Dayton traction line track is reported overloaded near Middletown.

Diver Nate Williams Trying To Locate Bodies

Local diver Nate Williams and his assistants this afternoon visited the scene of the triple tragedy in the Ohio river when Thomas Truitt, 45, Leonard Warnock, 24, and Aubrey Warnock, 19, of the Fullerton community drowned Tuesday afternoon when their skiff capsized. Williams will make an effort to recover the bodies.

The many friends of the three river victims have been urging Mr. Williams to dive for the bodies for several days and today he went to the scene to try and locate the bodies although he believes they are some distance down the river from where they disappeared from view opposite the "X" and "W" backlogs at East Portsmouth.

The rising water in the Ohio is not helping the men in their search for the bodies. A large number remained on the job during the rain Friday and today with the river almost ten feet higher than yesterday they were on the job again working in the hope that their hooks would bring to the surface the bodies of at least one of the victims.

Mrs. Lizzie Truitt wife of Thomas Truitt is offering a $50 reward for the recovery of the body of her husband.

PRISONERS ARRAIGNED

Four of the seven persons arraigned before Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Saturday morning under indictments returned by the grand jury denied guilt and will stand trial while three others pleaded guilty and were sentenced.

John Clark and Ella Davis, charged with highway robbery, pleaded not guilty and their bond was fixed at $1000 each pending trial which was assigned for next Tuesday.

They are accused of assaulting Samuel Wilson at Gay and Mill streets on the night of March 9 last, with intent to rob him. The couple will be defended by Attorneys H. L. Small and T. C. Beatty.

Donald Hunt, Cleveland young man charged with forcing the name of Clifford Skinner to a Western Union receipt through which he obtained $15 in money, denied guilt and Attorney R. F. Kimble was appointed to defend him.

Albert Anderson, colored, charged with issuing a worthless check on the First National Bank of Columbus in the sum of $25 which he succeeded in cashing in this city, denied guilt and Attorney H. A. Taylor was appointed to defend him. Anderson will be brought to trial on April 19.

John Taylor, 41, of New Boston, admitted taking a gun, and he was let off with a fine of $10 and costs after the court was advised that the defendant had already spent 35 days in jail.

Bruce Davis, alias William Smith, alias David Dorman, admitted issuing an invalid check on the Central National Bank for $41 on April 7, and he was sentenced from two to three years in the penitentiary. Davis told the court that his home was in Fronton and that he was convicted of highway robbery and sentenced to 15 months in the Ohio State Penitentiary while he was in military service. He stated that after serving 17 months he ran away from the prison and enlisted in the navy where he served two years. Davis said he enlisted as a member of Co. K in this city in 1917.

Young man, admitted guilty under an indictment for disturbing a religious meeting at a church near Effort last February and he was fined $50 and costs. After entering his plea Caldwell declared that the prosecuting witness against him, a man named Brown had sold him a quart of liquor on the night it was claimed the meeting was disturbed and the court directed the attention of Prosecutor Sheppard to Caldwell's statement.

The Scioto river was on a wild rampage today following more than a day of steady rain in that valley, the rain extending as far north as Columbus. The river was rising at all points today and this morning the river quickly covered the main road between Pikeon and Waverly. So rapid was the rise that the water also went over the road between Lucasville and the West Side. On account of the Ohio river not being at a high stage the Scioto is expected to run out quickly.

The only northbound road open to Columbus is the towpath from Portsmouth. This road is in a passable condition the worst place being from Bear Creek north to the Pike county line. The towpath in Pike county is in good shape. According to word the Portsmouth Automobile club received from Jasper this morning the high water is not expected to bother the towpath.

The Chillicothe-Portsmouth bus line was forced to suspend its regular trips to this city today on account of the high water.

School Board Discusses Health Work; Asked To Keep The Present Gym At High School

At a meeting of the city Board of Education held at the office of Clerk William C. Hazlett, Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, the three members present, Mrs. Rowena Marting, Dr. E. C. Jackson and W. R. Altman and Superintendent Frank Appel spending considerable time in the discussion of a recent Morning Star editorial that referred to the health work being conducted in the public schools.

Mrs. Marting presented the matter when she asked if the school nurses had her work checked up by any one and if she was making a report of any kind on the work accomplished. Mrs. Marting said that persons had inquired of her as to the work of the nurse. Superintendent Appel explained that the nurse made weekly reports on how many pupils were examined and the number of various ill effects found in each school.

Dr. Jackson said he was against the putting of a doctor or dentist in the schools although both had been highly recommended by higher health officials. He endorsed the work of a nurse.

Roger A. Selby and Charles M. Howland appeared on behalf of volleyball players and urged that the present high school gym be retained if possible as the city has a shortage of suitable places for such indoor games which are growing in interest.

The present plans for the addition and improvements to the high school call for a dining hall to be part of the present gym. The concrete floor at the entrance to the gym is to be continued clear across the gym according to present plans to make room for a sliding ball.

This would give the gym below a height of about 10 feet, making it useless for gym purposes. The change he made in plans so that the height of the gym will not be lessened, setting forth that there will be a big demand for the gym although there will be a gym in the new addition. The matter was referred to the building and repair committee, superintendent and the architect, the board expressing a willingness to meet the wish of the volleyball players and other athletes if it is reasonably possible.

Mrs. Marting also reported that the rear part of the old library building was a menace and in a very unsanitary condition, and reported that a property owner in the community had expressed a willingness to take care of the lot if the building was torn down. The matter was referred to the building and repair committee. Mrs. Marting also reported that members of the Campbell School Mothers' Club had asked about a new building or new additions to the present school as some of their children were walking to Union and Garfield schools.

The board agreed that there was the next building problem and told Mrs. Marting to inform the club that their plan was not falling on dead ears for the matter was already under consideration.

The Ladies' Muskele was granted the use of the auditorium on April 29 and the Grotto organization the use of the auditorium on May 8, 9 or 10th.

A request from the G. A. R. to have some kind of observance of Grant's 100th birthday anniversary April 27 was referred to Superintendent Appel who said that appropriate exercises could be held that day without granting a holiday.

The schedule amounted to $25, 347.29 and included janitors' payroll and estimates on school addition contracts.

Bigelow Recreation Program Proves Popular And Of Benefit To Many

Those who have become accustomed to regarding the church as simply a place where people go on Sundays, will be astonished when they realize the extent of the social activities that are carried on in even one department of Bigelow church, that of recreation and education. A diversified program of activities in fostering a large promotion of the old as well as the younger part of the church family, is carried out each week under the direction of L. E. Butler.

For instance, here is a schedule of what was going on at Bigelow church during the past week:

Monday, 2:00 p. m., High School Girls.
Monday, 7:00 p. m., Men's Valley Ball League, (Began Jan. 30th).
Tuesday, 2:30 p. m., Junior Boys.
Wednesday, 2:30 p. m., High School Boys.
Wednesday, 8:00 p. m., Young Women.
Thursday, 3:15 p. m., Junior Girls.
Thursday, 6:30 p. m., Boy Scouts.
Thursday, 8:00 p. m., Men's Valley Ball League.
Friday, 3:15 p. m., Intermediate Girls.

Mr. Butler also takes hikes with the boys.

Special Classes
Sunday, 9:30 a. m., Sunday School class.
Sunday, 9:00 a. m., Kindergarten (Taught by Mrs. Butler).
Sunday, 11:00 a. m., Junior Church.
Sunday, 6:00 p. m., Epworth League.

All of these activities are open to church members and their friends whom they wish to bring, and should be taken advantage of by as many as possible. Mr. Butler is always on the lookout to welcome new comers, and it is hoped to make the summer recreation program as profitable as has been the winter.

NO FLOOD STAGE, SAYS DEVEREAUX

Local River Observer F. B. Winter at 10 a. m. Saturday received the following telegram from Weather Forecaster W. C. Devereaux of Cincinnati:

River at Portsmouth will rise about 10 feet more and will then become stationary. Flood stage not expected.

No Danger

Vine Schlotz
The Times today received the following information on the Schlotz from Weather Observer Alexander of Columbus:

COLUMBUS, OHIO, April 15 — The river now stationary or falling at Columbus and above but still rising slowly at Cincinnati and below. Further rise of two to four feet probable in your vicinity in a few hours, possibly extending the flooded areas somewhat in low lands.

ALEXANDER

Heavy rainfall during the past 24 hours sent the Ohio river on a sharp rise in the Portsmouth district over Friday night and this morning the stream registered a stage of 27.0 feet and rising. The rise here during the twenty-four hours ending Saturday morning amounted to about seven feet, but fears of a flood stage were dispelled by rivermen, who predicted Saturday morning that the stream will not likely go over the 30 foot mark here unless there is considerable more rain.

The precipitation here in this section during the twenty-four hours ending at 7 a. m. Saturday morning was .75 inch.
The only lost movement Saturday was the Chris Green, which passed up for Huntington. The boat is scheduled to leave here at 5 a. m. Sunday on the return trip.

at the Wheelersburg high school commencement at May 22.
No graduation exercises will be held at Orway this year. This year the school is to be made a first grade high school by adding a fourth year's work. ### Descended Into Hell

When Jesus Christ died on Good Friday, His soul descended into hell. The hell into which Christ's soul descended was not the hell of the damned, but a place or state of rest called Limbo where the souls of the just were waiting for Him. Limbo means fringe or borderland. It is also called Abraham's bosom and Paradise. Christ descended into Limbo to preach to the souls who were in prison, that is to announce to them the joyful tidings of their Redemption. Heaven was closed by the sin of our first parents. It was not opened till the day of Christ's ascension. Until that time, the souls of the just were kept waiting in Limbo in a state of natural happiness.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—Could you tell me who the state day man is, as I would like to write and tell him a few things that are going on in this town. I can't get action here.

DISGUISED CITIZEN.
Address him Federal Postoffice, Director, J. B. Russell, Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—Do you think we are going to have a flood? It has been raining quite a bit and I understand the Mississippi river is full up to the mouth and I don't see how we can escape having a flood do you? Let me know if we are going to have one so I can get out of the hills. I don't want to get caught this time like I did in 1913.

WORKING WOMAN.
I don't look for a flood this year. The river may rise a few feet but it takes lots of water to make a flood. However, I'll let you know in plenty of time to move, if I hear that a flood is headed this way.

Dear Miss Wise—Why don't the city make people fix the alleys and streets the way they got them when they tear up to fix old pipes and put sewers in. Some of the streets and alleys in this town are a disgrace to the city. People will tear up the street, dig a ditch, throw a few shovels of dirt into it and leave a big hole there to fill up with dirt and mud and ruin automobile tires. I think it would be a good idea for the street gang to take a day off and visit the various holes in the city that have been left that way by careless workmen, and see that they are fixed the way they got them.

DISGUISED CITIZEN.
People are supposed to get nervous from the city to tear up streets and alleys, and they are supposed to put them back in the same condition they were before they were torn up. People don't always do this, however, so I think it would be a good idea to make those who dig holes in the streets and alleys, especially the latter, to report back to the service director, when they are through, and let him inspect the job and see that it is O. K.

Dear Dolly—Can you tell me why they called the twins who died recently Siamese twins when they were born in Austria instead of in Siam?

OBSERVING READER.
The original twins, Chang and Eng, were born in Siam. They were the first pair of this particular freak to gain international fame by exhibiting themselves at shows, etc. They were followed by many pairs of these odd ones. The term Siamese twins has as a result, gradually come to mean any pair of twins so joined together.

Dear Dolly—I have been going with a boy for two years and he seems to like me as a friend but he does not think enough of me to ask for steady company. I have gone with different fellows and have tried to forget this one but I can't. I am not sure that he goes with any other girls. Dolly, I work hard and do everything I can to please my mother. When I go out I am always in good company. I never like to go where this boy is because I think he does not want to go with me. Your advice will be greatly appreciated.

BROKENHEARTED GIRL.
The boy may like you, but if he is not in a position to marry, he probably does not want to be taking up your time and making you believe he is serious when he has no intention of getting married. You can go out with him and have a good time with out letting him know you are crazy about him.

Dear Miss Wise—Where can one have milk sent to be tested for the amount of fat in it?

WANT TO KNOW.

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"Hello," said Nick. "I mean, how do you do?"

HELLO there?" King Indig stopped with one foot in mid-air as the Twins appeared in the doorway of the room where he was playing hopscotch on one of his billiard tables.

"Hello," said Nick. "I mean, how do you do?" he corrected himself when he remembered that he was addressing a king. Nancy dropped a curtsy.

The king put down his foot and jumped off the table. "Who are you?" he asked amiably. "And do you play hopscotch?"

"Yes, your highness," answered Nick gravely. "Then come on and play."

"I'm sorry," said Nick, "but we can't stay. We're on a journey and it's only half over."

He was thinking that this was a queer king who had nothing to do but play while others were working so hard to make him happy. "Where to?" asked the king.

Nick told him about the record and Longland and all the rest of it. The king laughed. "That's fine," he cried. "But your journey's over."

GASOLINE EXPLODES; WOHLER BADLY BURNED

Calvary Commandery Inspected; Banquet Follows

John Wohler of Wohler and Martin, dry cleaners and tailors, 5505 Gallia street, Scioto, was badly burned on the right hand, back and shoulders and arms this morning about eight o'clock when some gasoline he was using in cleaning work exploded and set the walls of the work room on fire.

Following the first explosion he ran through the shop and out into the street, calling for help to extinguish the flames. At that time he was but little hurt. He then ran around the shop and in at the rear to fight the flames. A second flash of the deadly fluid covered him with fire. His shirt and undershirt were practically burned off his back, the right hand was terribly scorched, while several square feet of surface on his back, shoulders and arms were seared.

Wohler suffered excruciating agony until Dr. Martin Taylor arrived. The physician in time succeeded somewhat in easing the pain.

Frank Lee who lives near heard Wohler's screams and was the first to reach him and helped tear the burning clothing off. In his agony Wohler knocked off and broke Lee's glasses.

A large crowd was quickly drawn to the scene and the burning walls were soon gotten under control with the damage but slight.

The building is the Shump block corner of Gallia and Harding avenues. Besides the tailor shop, Theo. S. Shump has a shoe store in the building and Stanley Store and family have the second apartment.

Later Wohler rallied from his burns and is resting easily.

With a large number of members in attendance and several visitors present the annual inspection of Calvary Commandery No. 13, was held last night with Very Eminent Sir, F. Oscar Schoelinger, Deputy Grand Commander of Ohio, from Columbus, as the inspecting officer.

The local organization was found to be in the best of condition by the inspecting officer who paid the local members many fine compliments on their work. The inspection was followed by a banquet and other short talks that consumed the whole evening, the meeting not closing to a close until midnight.

Short addresses were given by Eminent Commander L. R. Taft of the Ashland Commandery and Past Eminent Commander George Glin who is also well known in Kentucky Masonic circles. Commander Taft, in his address, complimented the local organization of Calvary Commandery of Ohio, which will be held in Mayville May 17-18 and at which time the Ashland Commandery will keep open house.

Another most welcome speaker was Sir Knight Joseph Kahler of Cincinnati. He is an honorary member of Calvary Commandery and a third-degree Mason. He also complimented the local lodge on its splendid condition at inspection.

After the remarks by the various speakers the members were royally entertained by the recently organized Calvary Club of thirty sisters. Sir Knight Fred Levy is director and J. R. Wiles organizer. This Club will take its place with the Grotto and in Masonic celebrations in the future.

After the speedmaking and banqueting was completed the members took their seats around the long tables in the Masonic banquet hall. Here a sumptuous feast was spread before them by the women of the Eastern Star who, already known by Masons throughout the state, for the manner in which they prepare and serve the best of good things to eat fairly excelled all previous efforts last night. Such was the unanimous verdict of the more than two hundred Sir Knights who gathered around the board.

Eminent Commander H. Glen Davis acquitted himself with ease and grace as toastmaster as the rigors were being passed around, and the session ended at midnight with the members still talking of the events of the evening and beginning plans even then, for a bigger, and better inspection next year as a climax to twelve months of achievement and advancement.

After the remarks by the various speakers the members were royally entertained by the recently organized Calvary Club of thirty sisters. Sir Knight Fred Levy is director and J. R. Wiles organizer. This Club will take its place with the Grotto and in Masonic celebrations in the future.

After the speedmaking and banqueting was completed the members took their seats around the long tables in the Masonic banquet hall. Here a sumptuous feast was spread before them by the women of the Eastern Star who, already known by Masons throughout the state, for the manner in which they prepare and serve the best of good things to eat fairly excelled all previous efforts last night. Such was the unanimous verdict of the more than two hundred Sir Knights who gathered around the board.

Eminent Commander H. Glen Davis acquitted himself with ease and grace as toastmaster as the rigors were being passed around, and the session ended at midnight with the members still talking of the events of the evening and beginning plans even then, for a bigger, and better inspection next year as a climax to twelve months of achievement and advancement.

HUNTER'S CRACK TEAM AND THE COLUMBUS PANHANDLES WILL PLAY IN MILLBROOK SUNDAY

Game Will Start At 2:30; Look For Record Attendance

Unless the weatherman interferes, the crack Panhandles of Columbus and a hand picked nine from Fred Hunter's troupe of star recruits will kick the lid off the local baseball season in Millbrook park Sunday afternoon and judging from the interest and immense crowd of fans will be an item when the two teams get into action.

The Capital City crew needs no introduction to local fandom as the players have shown here many times in the past and are favorites in this city. The upstate warriors have established a great reputation as sportsmen of the great outdoor sport and they will be there tomorrow with such stars as Mays, Miller, McArthur, Egan, Bailey and Collins in the lineup ready to give the Michiganders a good argument for the honors of the day.

Manager Hunter's athletes are in fine fettle and eager for the going which will send them into the fray and the pilot, who will himself get into action at the first corner, is confident that his pupils will take the measure of the visitors in the inaugural fray.

At any rate a great contest is anticipated when the two aggregations look horns in a measure of strength on the diamond and may the best team win. Local fans perhaps will be neutral and whom it up for both sides when the opportunity presents.

The boys will be set to work promptly at 2:30 by his taps, Buck Yeager whose presence as the judge of play is a guarantee that the victors must win the battle on his merits.

Second Team To Play Maysville

Lansing Team No. 2 will go to Maysville Sunday and will look up the fast stepping Kentuckians. Manager Hunter will send a reglar team there and Maysville is sure to have a real ball game in its midst Sunday afternoon, of course, weather permitting.

Four Managers Still Active

Is the playing manager slowly becoming extinct in the major leagues?

Of the 16 big league leaders only four are now rated in the playing class.

The American League boasts three in Spenser, Cobb and Miller, while the National has one in Bill Killefer.

It is a rather interesting fact that of these American League playing managers are outfielders, Bill Killefer is a catcher and a mighty good one.

It would seem that catchers develop into managers more readily than players at other positions. Ten of the managers in the majors today gained fame back of the bat.

In the National League Cat Moran, Bill Killefer, Branch Rickey, George Gibson, Fred Mitchell and Wilbur Robinson starred in the majors back of the bat.

In the American League Connie Mack and Lee Fuld learned the game as catchers.

Will Decide Championship

The championship in the Selby league will be decided next week. The Tackers and Messengers are tied for first place but will meet early next week instead of to-day.

The B League championship will be decided Monday evening when the Tigers winners in the second half meet the Elm Shiners winners of the first half. Total pins to be counted. Later the B League winners will clash with the A League champs.

Rigler Hopes To Hit Gusher

CHARLEY RIGLER, National League umpire, has visions of one day wiring President Heydler so he can get himself another bump.

Rigler, for a number of years, has been connected with the East Ohio Gas Company of Cleveland during the winter months.

His position is with the leasing department of the company. Rigler is a talker. Years of argument with National League players have paid him along those lines.

When a promising spot opens up in the drilling of a gas well, it was Rigler to secure a lease on said property.

The side Rigler has been doing a lot of leasing for himself. He has secured the rights on a couple of acres of property in West Virginia. These wells are now being sunk.

They come in dry, then Charley goes on calling balls and strikes. They hit a gusher, well, President Heydler can start looking for a bumper.

There have been taking chances all my life, the way Rigler puts it, but no chances come through them.

CHICAGO, April 15. William "Sailor" Friedman, a boxer, and three others were held to the grand jury today as alleged accessories to the killing of Alvin Karpis, on presumption of a coroner's jury. Rubin was shot during a pool room fight last Sunday.

Bernard Barnich blames politics for the lunge of the population settlement. He is altogether right. You can blame politics for every lunge and blunder that nations make.

DEATH CALLS "POP" ANSON GAME'S MOST BELOVED FIGURE

CHICAGO, April 15.—Tributes today from scores of former associates of Adrian Anson, whose death occurred here yesterday, reflected the integrity of the greatest veteran of baseball. Captain Anson, "Pop Anson" many called him, died within two days of his 70th birthday. He probably was the greatest hero of the game, that he helped to establish many years ago.

Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the present Chicago Americans, and years ago Captain Anson's rival as a manager and leader, paid this final tribute:

"He was the greatest batter that ever walked up to hit at a baseball thrown by a pitcher. He was a fine, big honorable man, on and off the baseball field. He was an all-around sportsman, a great bowler, a fine billiardist, a competent golfer and a great man at the traps. He excelled at more branches of sport than any man I ever knew in baseball."

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 3 p. m. and the burial at Oakwood cemetery Monday will be private.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The passing of Pop Anson, grand old man of baseball, was mourned today by an army of his friends in New York.

John McGraw and Hughie Jennings, of the Giants; Wilbert Robinson, of the Brooklyn club and other players were told of Captain Anson's death after the game yesterday afternoon at the Polo grounds. All were grieved.

Sport writers and a great number of other persons who knew, admired and loved Captain Anson, recalled his presence at the last world's series. He was one of the liveliest spectators, enjoying himself by poking fun and swapping stories with other old timers.

Scores of messages of condolence and sympathy have been sent to Captain Anson's family from New York. Captain Anson made two trips abroad as an American baseball player. In 1874 he was a member of the American team that toured England, playing baseball and cricket. In 1888 Anson toured the world with the National League players party.

In the 22 years of his diamond career with the Chicago club, Anson played in 2,250 games, knocking out 2,042 hits and scoring 1,065 runs in 8,947 times at the plate, giving him a grand batting average of .337, one of the greatest long distance records in baseball history.

NATIONAL

NEW YORK, April 15.—The New York Nationals knocked Al Mammox out of the box early in Friday's game and easily defeated Brooklyn to 2-0.

The hitting of Groh and Rawlings was the largest factor in New York's victory. J. Barnes, New York pitcher, weathered a stormy first inning and then pitched high grade ball.

THE END COMETH SURELY

IT is difficult to diagnose the present economic situation. Under normal conditions, a big strike, like that on which the coal miners now are would disturb all business, in fact throw it into hesitancy and slow speed, but exactly the contrary effect seems to prevail.

Industry and trade pretty much in the dump, a revival of large proportions appears under way. At least the stock markets would so indicate. Prices therein are tending strongly and steadily upward, while in one notable line, steel, there is apparent a striking increase in activity.

The apparent contradiction is not to be accounted for unless it is taken as a symptom that business is returning to sanity, therefore confidence with renewed assertiveness. Of course, it could not flounder forever in the slough of despond. The wealth of the earth is not destroyed. It is here just as fully as it was two years ago, when the thing called prosperity was at its crazy height. Enterprise is not dead, it has been only stunned by perfectly natural results, violence and reach of which made them as mysteriously dreadful as they were thought untoward.

Yes, though the clouds may be lowering, it has just got to be that there are brighter days around the corner, which at least, is in sight.

A COUPLE OF STRAWS

IT is laid down that the straw shows which way the wind blows.

It is yet to be recorded what two straws show.

This comes to mind by reason of the fact there is both exultation and despondency because a couple of "over" candidates have beaten for re-nomination their opponents before the Illinois Republican primaries.

On the face of it the contests were waged on the single issue of the Volstead act, but that isn't saying other influences may not have entered therewith. It may be taken for a surety, anyway, that the general contentment into which the present congress has brought itself was one of the moving causes. As likely too is the condition that every man in the districts, who wanted a public job and didn't get it, and his name is legion, turned against the congressman. That's the way it goes in politics and those Illinois rank about second in the game to Ohioans.

So there isn't observable, by a calm and critical eye any terrific revulsion of popular sentiment, showing in these two incidents. In the first place the people never spoke out for prohibition; in the second there ought to be disgust for and repudiation of those congressmen, who voted for it, when all their practices were and still are against. This is not intended as an intimation that the defeated Illinois are of that sort, but undeniably many other congressmen are and this is but another Old Dog Tray instance.

It does make a great deal of difference, doesn't it? All the world knows disapprovingly of Hugh Stimmes, the industrial kaiser of Germany, but how few have even so much as heard the name of Louis Louchor, who is the Hugh Stimmes of France. Then there is Sir Basil Zaharoff, of Greece, who practically controls the armament factories of the world.

Getting sort of tired of the repetition, but the purchase of West Side lands for reforestation and game preserve is consummated this time fully and forever. Big thing for Scioto county and bigger to develop.

Never can tell from whence a good thing may come. The Republican attorney general of Missouri says no straight man has a right to vote a straight ticket, unless every man on the ticket is straight.

Credit it to the Reds that, at least, they didn't disappoint anybody in their first game.

Since Governor Davis assumes to dictate to all gubernatorial candidates upon what platform they shall run, the wonder grows why he didn't run for re-nomination himself and in his person make unnecessary any platform other than himself.

How the time changes. Used to hear a good deal about rain-makers wanted. Now the direct need of the land is a rain stopper.

After a jaunt over a road made of pentameter brick, we are more firmly convinced than ever that the only good use the road is built in Scioto county.

JOSEPH TESTS HIS BRETHREN

JOSEPH commanded his steward to fill the men's sacks with foodstuffs to put his silver cup into Benjamin's. After they had left the city to overtake them and open every sack, when the cup was found in Benjamin's and bring them back to him. Joseph said, "What deed is this that you have done. The man in whose hand the cup is found shall be my servant." Then Judah begged that he might serve in Benjamin's stead, he said his father was old and loved Benjamin, if they did not return with him their father would die.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, April 15.—Coney Island has flung off its winter garments. The shrill of the hot dog vendor and the beat of the ballyhoo mingle with the incessant melody from the thousand and one amusement machines. A sturdy, roaring call to flamboyant pleasure.

The army of freaks are back on their platforms, death defying thrillers whizz and whirl. Middle class life increases its tempo. Mamie and Daisie in gaudy garments spid the latest steps in the band-like dance halls. The garish streets are filled with bathed merry-makers.

Coney is to the East Side what Newport is to the South. It is over-dressed, blatant and without inhibitions. It calls a spade a spade. It is as frolic as the waves that lap its sandy shores. Yet back of it all there is a note of self-flagellation of the spirit.

For the Coney hordes, for the most part, are those who have faced the tragic realities of humdrum lives and slip away into this gay place, a masquerade of make-believe to taste the wine of youth and life. Coney is a definite part of our national consciousness. It is a great city's grief in cap and bells.

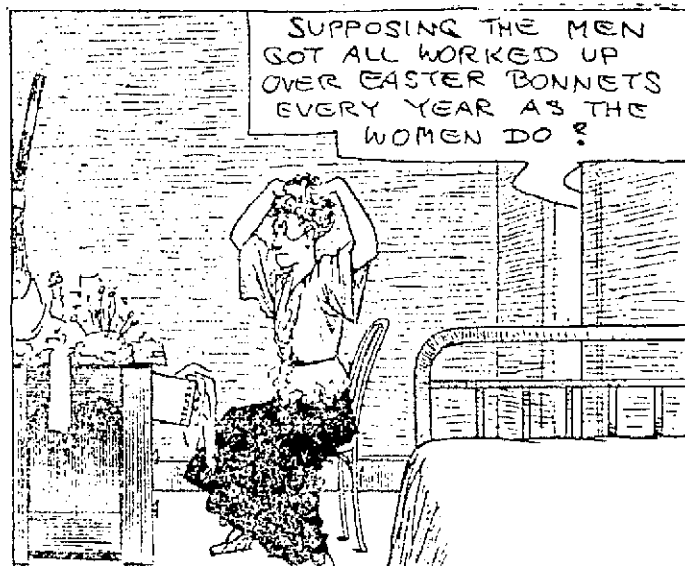

Tired faced mothers with tugging children, foreign born speared from the East Side's motting pot, struggling shop-keepers and clerks go to Coney to make a rainy and slashing attack upon their pleasures, apparently enjoying with happiness, but in reality snatching just a brief hour for so of joy with humps in their throats.

The famous resort has changed little with the years. The bells do not ring when a new log of beer is tapped and gangsters now go to bat in the roaring Forties near Broadway—but the spirit of the carnival lives. At Coney they shed confetti instead of the accustomed tears.

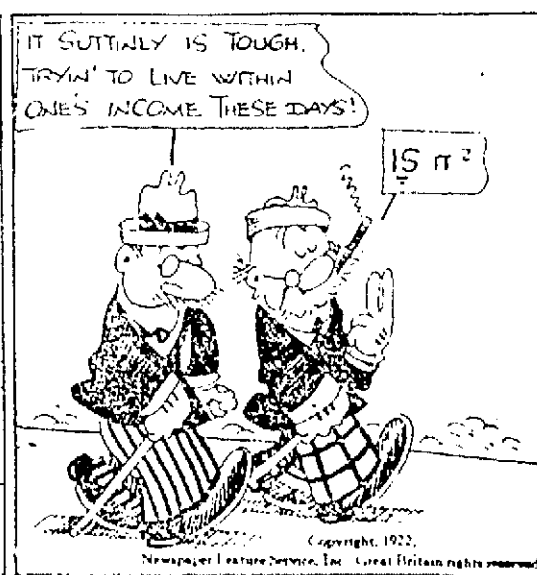

He is a dilettante—a fair haired boy in his early twenties cradled in supreme luxury. One of the theatrical managers who has prospered in a dull season suddenly felt the urge for some 19th century furniture. He dispatched the youth to Italy with a carte blanche commission. He picked up two tubs and a chair after nine months wandering and brought them back. The theatrical manager in a checked suit, brown derby and red scarf met him at the pier. He took one look at the furniture and said nothing. But on the way to his office in a taxi he turned to the young man and remarked: "All I need now is a coal scuttle to make a kitchen out."

The Parting

It is, I think, in Judge's last night I saw you leave the dance.

The victim of a flapper's charms, and safe behind the potted plants, you clasped her tightly in your arms.

The night before in that same place you said I was the only one, and showed me kisses on my face — You broke my heart to have your fun."

The atmosphere was growing tense — She gave him the engagement ring, and later, as he hurried thence, he wondered where she got the thing.

Some Failure

"Is that new collector of yours any good?"

"He's so punk he couldn't even collect his thoughts."

From Judge

An Awkward Moment

A judge was trying a case in which there was a dispute about a water right. As he had just partaken of a hearty luncheon, and counsel's argument was decidedly long-winded, he began to nod suspiciously.

All at once the lawyer thundered out:

"What we want is water."

"Very little in mine, please, very little in mine," said his honor, starting up suddenly.

More Important

Ask: How did he make his money?

Look: That isn't worrying me. What I'd like to know is how did he manage to save so much of it.

London Answers

"Hear you got a smoky mountain in your section?"

"Yes, and we think a lot of it."

"Why so?"

"Every now prohibition officer what comes along spends a month or so making preparations to raid it."

He Aimed High

To the average person some of the gymnastics performed in a game of football are beyond explanation. A halfback complained to his family about the injustice of allowing football players to wear head protectors.

"I should think it was most necessary," said the mother, who had witnessed one game with many tremors. "Look at the front teeth your cousin Harold lost."

"That may be," said her son sullenly, "but look at me, laid up with a lame foot just from kicking a fellow's nose gear."
